Application

IDA COVID-19 Relief Fund

Educators

IDA is offering scholarships for educators who teach students with reading disabilities to support access to materials and services. Funds are available for both general education and special education teachers. There are two types of scholarships:

FULL will cover 100% of costs associated with the approved technology, software, or services expenses. PARTIAL will cover some of the costs associated with the approved technology, software, or services expenses.

Full and partial scholarships are awarded based on need and current available funds. Scholarship recipients are expected to use all awarded funds for the intended purpose(s) of the scholarship. Please do not apply for partial scholarships if you are unable to cover some of the associated costs. The IDA and its partners have worked to provide products and services at significant reduced rates. The maximum partial amount an applicant may be expected to pay should be no more than $150 or less per service or product.
